

ENGLISH PLUS

WITH ANSWER
KEY

PRACTICE WORKSHEETS

GET GET GET GET
GET GET GET GET
GET GET GET GET
GET GET GET GET

COLLOCATIONS

EVERYDAY VERBS
GET

Collocations | Everyday Verbs Get

1. Answer these questions using the collocations you learned.

A. What can happen to men as they get older? (Clue: Think of their hair.)

B. What can happen if you are embarrassed? (Clue: Think of your face.)

C. What can happen if you get bad news? (Clue: Think of your face or hair.)

D. What can happen to the pages of a newspaper after a long time?

E. What happens to strawberries as they ripen?

F. The poet John Milton lost his eyesight at the end of his life. What is another way of saying that?

G. The composer Beethoven lost his hearing at the end of his life. What is another way of saying that?

H. At the end of Shakespeare's play, Hamlet loses his mind. What is another way of saying that?

I. If it is about to rain, what might happen to the sky?

2. Correct these sentences.

A. Dinosaurs got extinct thousands of years ago.

B. When I get married, I'd like to get lots of children.

C. Jasmine fell depressed after failing her final exams.

D. Niklas has always dreamt of getting famous.

E. Would you be interested in growing involved in this project?

F. More people have got homeless this year than in any previous year.

G. My sister got a baby last week.

H. My grandfather got a heart attack last winter.

3. Replace each use of get with a verb from the ones below.

fall - become - grow - have - make

As you get older, you'll begin to understand your parents better. Getting angry with them all the time doesn't help. You may not want to go to summer camp when none of your friends will be there, but your parents know you will soon get new friends there. You would all have gone on a family holiday together if your grandmother hadn't got ill, but surely you can understand why they don't want to leave her. You'll feel much more sympathetic to your parents' feelings when you get a child of your own!

4. Complete the collocations in these sentences.

- I think I'd go (A) if I had to put up with such a terrible boss!
- It was a wonderful sunset. The sky (B) gold and we sat on the terrace enjoying it.
- Once upon a time the walls were probably cream but they have (C) brown now and badly need repainting.
- When I start (D) grey, I'm definitely going to dye my hair.
- As the head teacher walked into the hall, the children all (E) silent.
- The noise on the street (F) louder and I looked out of the window to see what was happening.
- My grandmother is a little afraid of (G) ill while she is abroad.
- I was so embarrassed that I (H) bright red.

Collocations | Everyday Verbs Get

1. A. _____
B. _____
C. _____
D. _____
E. _____
F. _____
G. _____
H. _____
I. _____
2. A. _____
B. _____
C. _____
D. _____
E. _____
F. _____
G. _____
H. _____
3. _____

Answer Sheet

4. A. _____ B. _____ C. _____
D. _____ E. _____ F. _____
G. _____ H. _____

Collocations | Everyday Verbs Get

1. Answer these questions using the collocations you learned.

A. What can happen to men as they get older? (Clue: Think of their hair.)

They can go bald./ They can go grey.

B. What can happen if you are embarrassed? (Clue: Think of your face.)

You can go red.

C. What can happen if you get bad news? (Clue: Think of your face or hair.)

You face/ You can go white. If the news is a great shock you hair can go/turn white.

D. What can happen to the pages of a newspaper after a long time?

They can go yellow.

E. What happens to strawberries as they ripen?

They turn red.

F. The poet John Milton lost his eyesight at the end of his life. What is another way of saying that?

John Milton went blind.

G. The composer Beethoven lost his hearing at the end of his life. What is another way of saying that?

Beethoven went deaf.

H. At the end of Shakespeare's play, Hamlet loses his mind. What is another way of saying that?

Hamlet went mad.

I. If it is about to rain, what might happen to the sky?

It might turn grey./ It might go dark.

2. Correct these sentences.

A. Dinosaurs got extinct thousands of years ago.

Dinosaurs became extinct thousands of years ago.

B. When I get married, I'd like to get lots of children.

When I get married, I'd like to have lots of children.

C. Jasmine fell depressed after failing her final exams.

Jasmine became depressed after failing her final exams.

D. Niklas has always dreamt of getting famous.

Niklas has always dreamt of becoming famous.

E. Would you be interested in growing involved in this project?

Would you be interested in becoming involved in this project?

F. More people have got homeless this year than in any previous year.

More people have become homeless this year than in any previous year.

G. My sister got a baby last week.

My sister had a baby last week.

H. My grandfather got a heart attack last winter.

My grandfather had/suffered a heart attack last winter.

3. Replace each use of get with a verb from the ones below.

fall - become - grow - have - make

As you get older, you'll begin to understand your parents better. Getting angry with them all the time doesn't help. You may not want to go to summer camp when none of your friends will be there, but your parents know you will soon get new friends there. You would all have gone on a family holiday together if your grandmother hadn't got ill, but surely you can understand why they don't want to leave her. You'll feel much more sympathetic to your parents' feelings when you get a child of your own!

As you grow older, you'll begin to understand your parents better. Becoming angry with them all the time doesn't help. You may not want to go to summer camp when none of your friends will be there, but your parents know you will soon make new friends there. You would all have gone on a family holiday together if your grandmother hadn't fallen ill, but surely you can understand why they don't want to leave her. You'll feel much more sympathetic to your parents' feelings when you have a child of your own!

4. Complete the collocations in these sentences.

- I think I'd go (A) mad if I had to put up with such a terrible boss!
- It was a wonderful sunset. The sky (B) turned gold and we sat on the terrace enjoying it.
- Once upon a time the walls were probably cream but they have (C) gone brown now and badly need repainting.
- When I start (D) going/to go grey, I'm definitely going to dye my hair.
- As the head teacher walked into the hall, the children all (E) fell silent.
- The noise on the street (F) grew louder and I looked out of the window to see what was happening.
- My grandmother is a little afraid of (G) falling ill while she is abroad.
- I was so embarrassed that I (H) went/turned bright red.

Collocations | Everyday Verbs Get

1. A. They can go bald./ They can go grey.
B. You can go red.
C. You face/ You can go white. If the news is a great shock you hair can go/turn white.
D. They can go yellow.
E. They turn red.
F. John Milton went blind.
G. Beethoven went deaf.
H. Hamlet went mad.
I. It might turn grey./ It might go dark.
2. A. Dinosaurs became extinct thousands of years ago.
B. When I get married, I'd like to have lots of children.
C. Jasmine became depressed after failing her final exams.
D. Niklas has always dreamt of becoming famous.
E. Would you be interested in becoming involved in this project?
F. More people have become homeless this year than in any previous year.
G. My sister had a baby last week.
H. My grandfather had/suffered a heart attack last winter.
3. As you grow older, you'll begin to understand your parents better. Becoming angry with them all the time doesn't help. You may not want to go to summer camp when none of your friends will be there, but your parents know you will soon make new friends there. You would all have gone on a family holiday together if your grandmother hadn't fallen ill, but surely you can understand why they don't want to leave her. You'll feel much more sympathetic to your parents' feelings when you have a child of your own!

Answer Sheet

4. A. ● mad B. ● turned C. ● gone
D. ● going/to go E. ● fell F. ● grew
G. ● falling H. ● went/turned