

H
E
D
R
A
L

Across

2. A historic close located under buildings on the Royal Mile. It consists of a number of underground streets and spaces, and it's often associated with myths and legends.
3. An annual arts festival in Edinburgh, known for its diverse and extensive programming, including theater, music, dance, and comedy.
5. A person who enjoys eating and often eats too much; also refers to someone with a refined palate, appreciating high-quality food.
6. A traditional Scottish dish made from a sheep's stomach stuffed with minced liver, lungs, and heart, combined with oatmeal, onions, and spices.
11. Refers to the part of Edinburgh built in the 18th and 19th centuries, distinguished by its planned street layout and elegant Georgian architecture.
12. A designation bestowed by UNESCO to cities that have a strong literary heritage and are committed to fostering literature, reading, and writing.
13. An iconic historic fortress that dominates the skyline of Edinburgh, Scotland. It has played a pivotal role in the country's history, serving variously as a royal palace, military stronghold, and prison.
15. A term for the oldest part of the city, characterized by medieval street plans, narrow alleys, and historic buildings.

Down

1. A royal park in central Edinburgh, containing Arthur's Seat and other geological formations that showcase the area's ancient volcanic history.
4. A style of architecture prevalent during the Georgian era, marked by symmetry, proportion, and classical details.
7. A traditional Scottish musical instrument consisting of a bag with attached pipes, played by blowing air into the bag and manipulating the pipes to create sound.
8. The main thoroughfare of Edinburgh's Old Town, connecting Edinburgh Castle and the Palace of Holyroodhouse. It is lined with numerous historic buildings and landmarks.
9. Relating to the Middle Ages, a period in European history from the 5th to the late 15th century, characterized by feudalism, the growth of monasticism, and the development of Gothic architecture.
10. The main peak in the group of hills in Edinburgh, formed by an ancient volcano, and is known for its sweeping views of the city.
14. Also known as the High Kirk of Edinburgh, a historic building and prominent place of worship located in the Old Town.