

The Science of Addiction

Across

- A sudden strong and unreflective urge or desire to act.
- Lasting for a very short period; temporary.

Down

- A ghost; something widely feared as a possible unpleasant or dangerous occurrence.

- 8. Of, relating to, or involving conscious intellectual activity, such as thinking, reasoning, or remembering.
 - 9. Extremely delicate and light in a way that seems not to be of this world.
 - 11. Relating to the chemical processes and substances that occur within living organisms.
 - 12. The process of change by which an organism or species becomes better suited to its environment.
 - 14. Chemical substances that transmit nerve impulses across a synapse to a target cell.
 - 15. Relating to a person's body, especially as opposed to their spirit; material or tangible.
- 4. The capacity to recover quickly from difficulties; toughness.
 - 5. The act of setting someone free from imprisonment, slavery, or oppression; release.
 - 6. The tendency of the body to seek and maintain a condition of balance or equilibrium within its internal environment.
 - 7. Having many curves and turns; lithe and supple.
 - 10. Catch in or as in a trap; trap.
 - 13. A division or contrast between two things that are represented as being opposed or entirely different.